——— Mr. Bradlaugh came to the Table to take and subscribe the Oath; directed to withdraw, 198. Addressed Mr. Speaker, stating that, in complying with his direction, he respectfully submitted that he might be heard before the House came to a decision upon his claim to take the Oath:—And then he withdrew. And Mr. Speaker having taken the pleasure of the House that the Honourable Member for Northampton should now be heard; Mr. Bradlaugh was thereupon heard at the Bar of the House in support of his claim to take the Oath:—And then he withdrew; Mr. Bradlaugh again came to the Table to take and subscribe the Oath, when Mr. Speaker acquainted him with the Resolution of the House, and directed him to withdraw; Whereupon Mr. Bradlaugh stated that he respectfully declined to follow the direction of Mr. Speaker, and that he refused to withdraw. Mr. Speaker again called upon Mr. Bradlaugh to withdraw, in obedience to the Order of the House, but he refused to obey the Order of the House, as being against Law. Mr. Speaker thereupon called on the Serjeant-at-Arms to remove Mr. Bradlaugh below the Bar; Whereupon the Serjeant having placed his hand on Mr. Bradlaugh, he was conducted below the Bar; Mr. Bradlaugh, however, again advancing within the Bar, and asserting his determination to resist the Order of the House, he was again removed by the Serjeant below the Bar, 198—199.

——— Mr. Bradlaugh came again to the Table, and claimed, as a duly elected Member, to take and subscribe the Oath required by Law; whereupon Mr. Speaker informed Mr. Bradlaugh that the House had ordered him to withdraw, and that if he refused to obey that Order, and did not withdraw below the Bar, he must be removed from the Table by the Serjeant-at-Arms; and Mr. Bradlaugh, having stated that it was his determination not to retire from the Table unless force was used to compel him to do so, the Serjeant, by the direction of Mr. Speaker, placed his hand upon Mr. Bradlaugh, and conducted him below the Bar, 199.

——— Mr. Bradlaugh came again to the Table, and stated that he was there in order that he might fulfil the duty imposed upon him by Law, as a duly elected Member, and take the Oath required by Law. Whereupon Mr. Speaker informed Mr. Bradlaugh that upon his presenting himself to take the Oath, the House had already ordered him to withdraw below the Bar; and Mr. Speaker, in pursuance of that Order, called on Mr. Bradlaugh to withdraw. Mr. Bradlaugh, having stated that he respectfully refused to obey Mr. Speaker's direction, Mr. Speaker called upon the Serjeant-at-Arms to remove Mr. Bradlaugh, and the Serjeant accordingly conducted him below the Bar. Mr. Bradlaugh thereupon, standing at the Bar, declared that it was his intention to refuse to obey the Order of the House, as it was illegal. Whereupon a Motion was made, and the Question being put, That the Serjeant-at-Arms do remove Mr. Bradlaugh from the House, until he shall engage not further to disturb the Proceedings of the House; it was resolved in the Affirmative:—Order, That the Serjeant-at-Arms do remove Mr. Bradlaugh from the House, until he shall engage not further to disturb the Proceedings of the House, 227.

Parliamentary Franchise (Ireland); Petition from the Corporation of Dublin presented at the Bar by the Lord Mayor of Dublin, for assimilating the Parliamentary Franchises in England and Ireland, 10.

Parliamentary Oath (Mr. Bradlaugh); Mr. Bradlaugh, returned as one of the Members for the Borough of Northampton, came to the Table to take and subscribe the Oath, and the Clerk was proceeding to administer the same to him when Sir Stafford Northcote, Member for the Northern Division of the County of Devon, rose to take objection thereto, and to submit a Motion to the House: Whereupon Mr. Speaker addressed the House as follows: The honourable Member for Northampton having been introduced, has come to the Table to take the Oath required by Law, in the accustomed form. He is prepared to comply with every provision of the Statutes, in order to take his Seat in this House. Undoubtedly a proceeding so regular and formal ought, under ordinary circumstances, to be continued without interruption, but, having regard to former Resolutions of the House, and to the Reports of its Committees in reference to this matter, I cannot withhold from the House an opportunity of expressing its judgment upon the new conditions under which the Oath is now proposed to be taken. And then Mr. Speaker directed the honourable Member to withdraw: whereupon, Mr. Bradlaugh, addressing Mr. Speaker, stated that, in complying with his direction, he respectfully submitted that he might be heard before the House came to a decision upon his claim to take the Oath:—And then he withdrew. Motion, That, having regard to the Resolution of this House of the 22nd June 1880, and to the Reports and Proceedings of the two Select Committees therein referred to, Mr. Bradlaugh be not permitted to go through the form of repeating the words of the Oath prescribed by the Statutes, 29 Vic. c. 19, and 31 and 32 Vic. c. 72; Amendment proposed to leave out from the word "That," to the end of the Question, in order to add the words "in a case where a Member, duly elected, presents himself at the Table in conformity with the call of Mr. Speaker, and is proceeding to comply with the formalities prescribed for the taking of Parliamentary Oaths, without qualification, this House will not, on the ground ground of information extraneous to the transaction, offer any impediment to the fulfilment of the intention of such Member;" Question, That the words proposed to be left out stand part of the Question; and Mr. Speaker having taken the pleasure of the House that the honourable Member for Northampton should now be heard; Mr. Bradlaugh was thereupon heard at the Bar of the House in support of his claim to take the Oath:—And then he withdrew; Question, That the words proposed to be left out stand part of the Question, on Division, resolved in the Affirmative; Main Question put:—Resolution, That, having regard to the Resolution of this House of the 22nd June 1880, and to the Reports and Proceedings of the two Select Committees therein referred to, Mr. Bradlaugh be not permitted to go through the form of repeating the words of the Oath prescribed by the Statutes, 29 Vic. c. 19, and 31 and 32 Vic. c. 72. Mr. Bradlaugh again came to the Table to take and subscribe the Oath, when Mr. Speaker acquainted him with the Resolution of the House, and directed him to withdraw; whereupon Mr. Bradlaugh stated that he respectfully declined to follow the direction of Mr. Speaker, and that he refused to withdraw; Motion, That Mr. Bradlaugh do now withdraw, and Question resolved in the Affirmative. Mr. Speaker again called upon Mr. Bradlaugh to withdraw, in obedience to the Order of the House, but he refused to obey the Order of the House, as being against Law. Mr. Speaker thereupon called on the Serjeant at Arms to remove Mr. Bradlaugh below the Bar; whereupon the Serjeant having placed his hand on Mr. Bradlaugh, he was conducted below the Bar; Mr. Bradlaugh, however, again advancing within the Bar, and asserting his determination to resist the Order of the House, he was again removed by the Serjeant below the Bar, 198.

——————— Mr. Bradlaugh came again to the Table, and claimed, as a duly elected Member, to take and subscribe the Oath required by Law; whereupon Mr. Speaker informed Mr. Bradlaugh that the House had ordered him to withdraw, and that if he refused to obey that Order, and did not withdraw below the Bar, he must be removed from the Table by the Serjeant at Arms; and Mr. Bradlaugh, having stated that it was his determination not to retire from the Table unless force was used to compel him to do so, the Serjeant, by the direction of Mr. Speaker, placed his hand upon Mr. Bradlaugh, and conducted him below the Bar, 199.

——————— Mr. Bradlaugh came again to the Table, and stated that he was there in order that he might fulfil the duty imposed upon him by Law, as a duly elected Member, and take the Oath required by Law; whereupon Mr. Speaker informed Mr. Bradlaugh that upon his presenting himself to take the Oath, the House had already ordered him to withdraw below the Bar; and Mr. Speaker, in pursuance of that Order, called on Mr. Bradlaugh to withdraw. Mr. Bradlaugh, having stated that he respectfully refused to obey Mr. Speaker's direction, Mr. Speaker called upon the Serjeant at Arms to remove Mr. Bradlaugh, and the Serjeant accordingly conducted him below the Bar. Mr. Bradlaugh thereupon, standing at the Bar, declared that it was his intention to refuse to obey the Order of the House, as it was illegal:—Order, That the Serjeant at Arms do remove Mr. Bradlaugh from the House until he shall engage not further to disturb the Proceedings of the House, 227.

——————— Letter from Mr. Bradlaugh relative to the Proceedings, 228.

——————— Motion, That, in the opinion of this House, the Resolution of the House passed 10th May last, "That the Serjeant at Arms do remove Mr. Bradlaugh from the House, until he shall engage not further to disturb the proceedings of the House," meant that Mr. Bradlaugh should not come within the outer door of this Chamber, and did not give any power to the Serjeant at Arms to hinder him from entering and remaining in all or any other portions of this edifice, &c.; Amendment proposed to leave out from the word "That" to the end of the Question, in order to add the words "this House approves the action of Mr. Speaker and of the Officers of this House acting under his orders," and, on Division, made:—Resolution, That this House approves the action of Mr. Speaker and of the Officers of this House acting under his orders, 426.

——————— admonishes a Member, 56.

——————— rules, objection having been taken to the regularity of the Deputy Speaker leaving the Chair, based upon the terms of the Standing Order of the 20th July 1855: that this Standing Order is enabling only, and provides for the appointment and duties of the Deputy Speaker during the unavoidable absence of the Speaker. If that absence should continue until the Sitting of the House is closed, it provides for the execution of his duties until its next Sitting; but it does not assume to restrain the inherent authority of the Speaker himself, in the event of his resuming the Chair, while the House is still sitting. In that case his unavoidable absence is at an end; he is in the Chair again, and exercises the authority of his Office:—Mr. Speaker, under the present circumstances, did not consider that the Standing Order had any application, 50.

——————— addresses the House as follows:—The Motion for leave to bring in the Protection of Person and Property (Ireland) Bill has now been under discussion for above five days. The present sitting, having commenced on Monday last, at Four o'clock, has continued until this Wednesday morning, a period of forty-one hours, the House having been occupied with discussions upon repeated dilatory tory Motions for Adjournment. However prolonged and tedious these discussions, the Motions have been supported by small minorities, in opposition to the general sense of the House. A crisis has thus arisen which demands the prompt interposition of the Chair, and of the House. The usual rules have proved powerless to ensure orderly and effective Debate. An important measure, recommended in Her Majesty's Speech nearly a month since, and declared to be urgent, in the interests of the State, by a decisive majority, is being arrested by the action of an inconsiderable minority, the Members of which have resorted to those modes of "Obstruction," which have been recognised by the House as a Parliamentary offence. The dignity, the credit, and the authority of this House are seriously threatened, and it is necessary that they should be vindicated. Under the operation of the accustomed rules and methods of procedure, the Legislative powers of the House are paralysed. A new and exceptional course is imperatively demanded; and I am satisfied that I shall best carry out the will of the House, and may rely upon its support, if I decline to call upon any more Members to speak, and at once proceed to put the Questions from the Chair. I feel assured that the House will be prepared to exercise all its powers in giving effect to these proceedings. Future measures for ensuring orderly Debate I must leave to the judgment of the House. But I may add that it will be necessary either for the House itself to assume more effectual control over its Debates, or to entrust greater authority to the Chair, 50.

——————— called upon Mr. Gladstone, who rose, and was proceeding to move a Resolution relative to the Business of the House, of which he had given notice, when he was interrupted by Mr. Dillon, who also rose to address the House. Mr. Speaker ruled that Mr. Gladstone was in possession of the House; Mr. Dillon again rose, and remained standing, though called upon by Mr. Speaker to resume his seat; whereupon he was named by Mr. Speaker as wilfully disregarding the authority of the Chair; Mr. Dillon suspended, 55. Vide Members.

——————— names other Members as disregarding the authority of the Chair; Members suspended, 31, 55, 56, 57, 103, 286, 418. Vide Members.

——————— informs the House that several Members who had given their voices with the Noes when a Question was put, had, when the Tellers proceeded to clear the House for the Division, refused to quit their places, and Mr. Speaker submitted the conduct of such Members to the consideration of the House. The House proceeded to a Division:—Lord Richard Grosvenor, one of the Tellers for the Ayes, again came to the Table, and stated that he was unable to clear the House, because several Members refused to quit their places. Mr. Speaker thereupon directed those Members to follow the direction of the Tellers, and he admonished them that by remaining in the House, they were resisting the authority of the Chair, and cautioned them of the consequences that their conduct might entail upon them; and then Mr. Speaker directed that the Division should proceed; the House divided:—Lord Richard Grosvenor reported to Mr. Speaker the Names of those Members who had refused to quit their places in the House, and take part in the late Division. Mr. Speaker informed the House that those Members whose Names had been reported to him had been cautioned by him, that, by their conduct, they were disregarding the authority of the Chair; a Member directed to withdraw; Mr. Speaker then stated to the House the Names of those Members who, during the late Division, had disregarded the authority of the Chair; Motion, That the Members be suspended; the House proceeded to a Division:—Lord Richard Grosvenor again reported to Mr. Speaker that certain Members refused to take part in the Division, and Mr. Speaker repeated to such Members the admonition and caution which he had previously given; then the House divided:—Lord Richard Grosvenor also reported to Mr. Speaker that Mr. Molloy, Member for the King's County, had, in addition to the other Members who had refused to take part in the late Division, declined to withdraw from his place in the House. The House divided on suspension of another Member. Lord Richard Grosvenor stated that Mr. Richard Power and Mr. O'Shaughnessy had refused to leave their places in the House and take part in the late Division, 56. Mr. Speaker informed the House that Mr. Richard Power and Mr. O'Shaughnessy had been admonished by him, and cautioned for their conduct in refusing to take part in the late Division; and then Mr. Speaker Named Mr. Richard Power and Mr. O'Shaughnessy as having disregarded the authority of the Chair, 57. ——————— addresses the House as follows:—The House has entrusted to me great and unprecedented powers; and I accept them with a grave sense of the responsibility imposed upon me. I shall endeavour to carry them out in such a manner as to maintain freedom of debate, which is one of the most cherished traditions of this House, and at the same time to restrain any abuses of that freedom. I am deeply sensible of the confidence which the House has reposed in me, at a time of unexampled emergency; and, in discharge of the arduous duties now committed to me, I shall rely upon its generous support and indulgence. In a few days, I propose to lay before the House certain Rules for the Regulation of its Business, while the state of Public Business continues to be urgent. In the meantime, I have thought proper, at once, to frame a rule which is necessary to ensure the uninterrupted progress of the urgent measure now before us. That rule is in the following terms:—That no Motion for the adjournment of the House shall be made, except by leave of the House, before the Orders of the Day or Notices of Motions have been entered upon, 60.

——————— addresses the House as follows:—I desire to lay upon the Table certain Rules, framed by me in pursuance of the Resolution of the House of the 3rd of February, for the Regulation of the Business of the House while the state of Public Business is urgent. I may find it necessary to frame other Rules, from time to time, as occasion may require, which will also be laid before the House. I trust they may be found to promote the proper consideration of urgent measures, without unduly restricting the freedom of orderly Debate, 65.

——————— addresses the House as follows:—I desire to lay upon the Table certain additional Rules framed by me, in pursuance of the Resolution of the House of 3rd February, for the Regulation of the Business of the House, while the state of Public Business is urgent, 78.

——————— addresses the House, as follows:—Having considered the Questions addressed to me this afternoon, and other suggestions which have reached me, I have framed a new Rule relating to the Proceedings in Committee, and on the Consideration of a Bill, as amended, in lieu of the Rules laid upon the Table yesterday. This Rule has the same object in view, but is framed in a manner which I trust will meet the general views of the House, in regard to the passing of urgent measures, 83.

——————— addresses the House as follows:—As the Protection of Person and Property (Ireland) Bill was passed, on Friday last, I have now to declare, in pursuance of the Resolution of the House of the 3rd February, that the state of Public Business is no longer urgent, 98.

——————— addresses the House as follows:—The honourable Member for Northampton having been introduced, has come to the Table to take the Oath required by Law, in the accustomed form. He is prepared to comply with every provision of the Statutes, in order to take his Seat in this House. Undoubtedly a proceeding so regular and formal ought, under ordinary circumstances, to be continued without interruption, but, having regard to former Resolutions of the House, and to the Reports of its Committees mittees in reference to this matter, I cannot withhold from the House an opportunity of expressing its judgment upon the new conditions under which the Oath is now proposed to be taken. And then Mr. Speaker directed the honourable Member to withdraw, 198. And Mr. Speaker having taken the pleasure of the House that the Honourable Member for Northampton should now be heard; Mr. Bradlaugh was thereupon heard at the Bar of the House, 198. Vide PARLIAMENTARY OATH.

——— acquaints Mr. Bradlaugh with the Resolution of the House, That he be not permitted to go through the form of repeating the words of the Oath, &c., and directs him to withdraw. Mr. Speaker again called upon Mr. Bradlaugh to withdraw, in obedience to the Order of the House, but he refused to obey the Order of the House, as being against Law. Mr. Speaker thereupon called on the Serjeant-at-Arms to remove Mr. Bradlaugh below the Bar, 199. Mr. Bradlaugh came again to the Table, and claimed, as a duly elected Member, to take and subscribe the Oath required by Law. Whereupon Mr. Speaker informed Mr. Bradlaugh that the House had ordered him to withdraw, and that if he refused to obey that Order, and did not withdraw below the Bar, he must be removed from the Table by the Serjeant-at-Arms. And Mr. Bradlaugh, having stated that it was his determination not to retire from the Table unless force was used to compel him to do so, the Serjeant, by the direction of Mr. Speaker, placed his hand upon Mr. Bradlaugh, and conducted him below the Bar, 199. Mr. Bradlaugh came again to the Table, and stated that he was there in order that he might fulfil the duty imposed upon him by Law, as a duly elected Member, and take the Oath required by Law. Whereupon Mr. Speaker informed Mr. Bradlaugh that upon his presenting himself to take the Oath, the House had already ordered him to withdraw below the Bar; and Mr. Speaker, in pursuance of that Order, called on Mr. Bradlaugh to withdraw. Mr. Bradlaugh, having stated that he respectfully refused to obey Mr. Speaker's direction, Mr. Speaker called upon the Serjeant-at-Arms to remove Mr. Bradlaugh, and the Serjeant accordingly conducted him below the Bar. Mr. Bradlaugh thereupon, standing at the Bar, declared that it was his intention to refuse to obey the Order of the House, as it was illegal:—Order, That the Serjeant-at-Arms do remove Mr. Bradlaugh from the House, until he shall engage not further to disturb the Proceedings of the House, 227. Vide PARLIAMENTARY OATH.

——— Motion, That, in the opinion of this House, the Resolution of the House passed 10th May last, "That the Serjeant-at-Arms do remove Mr. Bradlaugh from the House, until he shall engage not further to disturb the proceedings of the House," meant that Mr. Bradlaugh should not come within the outer door of this Chamber, and did not give any power to the Serjeant-at-Arms to hinder him from entering and remaining in all or any other portions of this edifice, &c.; Amendment proposed, to leave out from the word "That" to the end of the Question, in order to add the words "this House approves the action of Mr. Speaker and of the Officers of this House acting under his orders," and, on Division, made, 426. If that absence should continue until the Sitting of the House is closed, it provides for the execution of his duties until its next Sitting; but it does not assume to restrain the inherent authority of the Speaker himself, in the event of his resuming the Chair, while the House is still sitting. CHAIRMAN of the COMMITTEE of WAYS and MEANS:

——— Lays upon the Table,—Report of Bills to originate in the House of Lords, 30.

——— Takes the Chair as Deputy Speaker, 32, 49, 50.

——— Leaves the Chair, to report Progress, it being ten minutes before Seven o'clock at a morning sitting, 309, &c. It being a quarter before Six o'clock on Wednesday, 334, 353, 427, &c.

——— Leaves the Chair, it appearing that Forty Members were not present in the Committee, 417.

——— Objection being taken to the regularity of the Deputy Speaker leaving the Chair, based upon the terms of the Standing Order of the 20th July 1855, Mr. Speaker ruled that this Standing Order is enabling only, and provides for the appointment and duties of the Deputy Speaker during the unavoidable absence of the Speaker. If that absence should continue until the Sitting of the House is closed, it provides for the execution of his duties until its next sitting; but it does not assume to restrain the inherent authority of the Speaker himself, in the event of his resuming the Chair, while the House is still sitting. In that case his unavoidable absence is at an end; he is in the Chair again, and exercises the authority of his office. Mr. Speaker, under the present circumstances, did not consider that the Standing Order had any application, 50.

——— On Question put (in Committee of the whole House), the Chairman states that he thought the Noes had it, and, his decision being challenged, he directed the Ayes to stand up in their places, and Six Members only having stood up, he declared that the Noes had it, 82. ——— The Chairman states that he thought the Ayes had it; and, his decision being challenged, he directed the Noes to stand up in their places, and Ten Members only having stood up, he declared that the Ayes had it, 111.

——— Puts the Question (in Committee of the whole House), pursuant to the Order of the House, 85, 113.

——— During his absence (in Committee of the whole House), Mr. Solicitor General took the Chair, 374.

——— States (in Committee of the whole House), That a Motion to report progress, &c. was, in his judgment, made for the purpose of obstruction, and puts the Question forthwith, 72.

——— Directs Members to discontinue their Speeches, on account of continued irrelevance (in Committee of the whole House), 77, 80, 82.

——— Names a Member as disregarding the authority of the Chair; Resolution, That the said Member be suspended, on Division; Chairman leaves the Chair to report the Resolution to the House, 111.
